

Why Right to Work checks are important:

Our solution:

UK employers are legally required to conduct Right to Work checks on new starters

Easy to use solution for candidates to capture their own documentation and get confirmation of their right to work

With risks of identity fraud, tracking your employee population and ensuring accurate verification is essential

Maintains accurate records of your employees

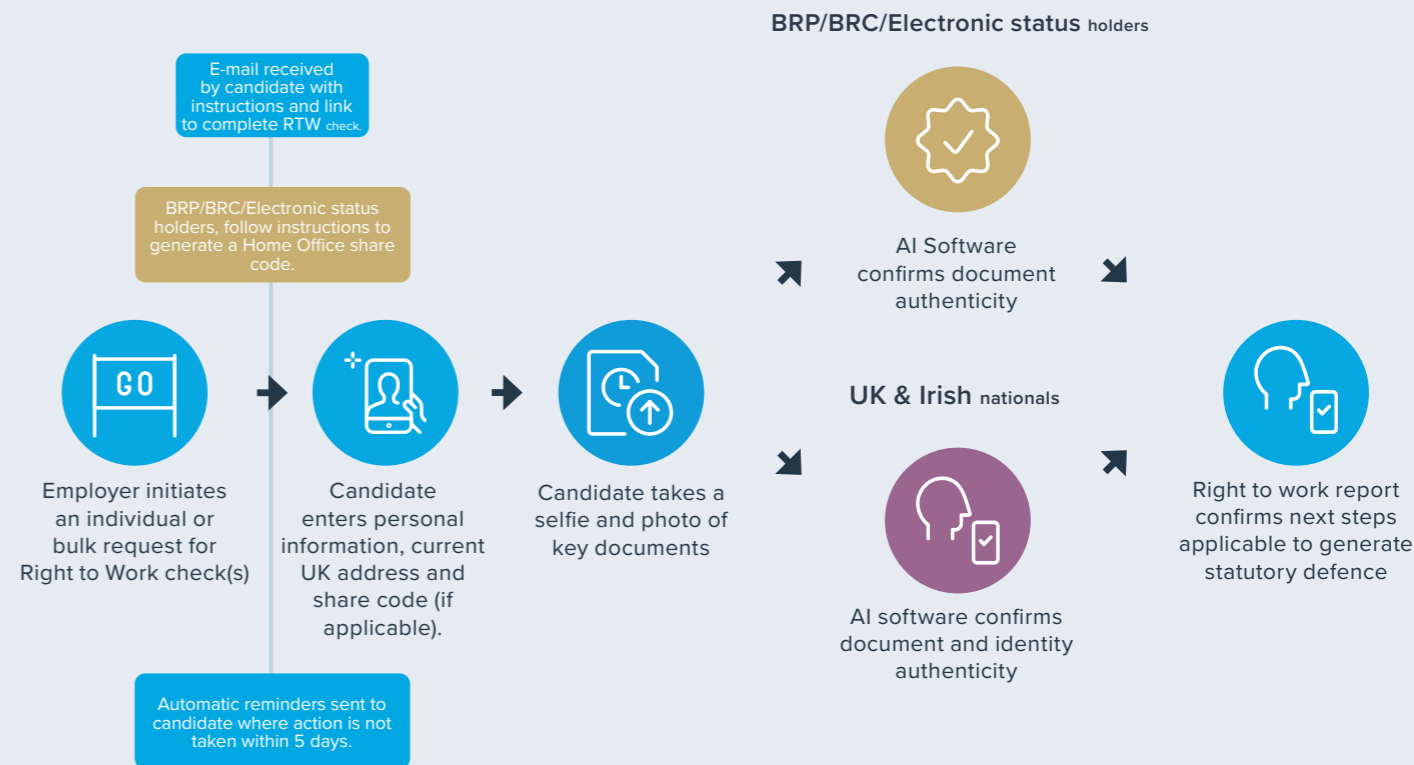

Possible government fines of up to £20,000 per person for illegal workers

Combines technology-led solution with experienced legal guidance from Fragomen's UK Compliance practice

How it works

Key benefits

Reduces risk and maximises compliance

Drives time and cost efficiencies through automation

Provides employee status oversight

Immigration professionals readily available should you encounter any issues

Paperless and fully automated online process

Removes ambiguity over Right to Work check documentation

Contact

For more information, please get in touch with your Fragomen contact or email Workright@fragomen.com